The Excluded Workers Fund (EWF) provides financial help to New Yorkers who lost income during the COVID-19 pandemic and were left out of various federal relief programs, including unemployment and pandemic benefits.

To receive funds, applicants must provide a number of documents to verify their identity, residency, and work eligibility. Each document submitted to prove work eligibility has a point value.

• To qualify for the Tier 1 amount of $15,600 (minus taxes), applicants need to establish a minimum of 5 points.
• To qualify for the Tier 2 amount of $3,200 (minus taxes), applicants need to establish a minimum of 3 points.

The successful completion of this letter is worth 5 points.

Applicant Name: ___________________________ Employment Start Date: _______________ MM/DD/YYYY

Date applicant lost employment or work hours for COVID-related reasons: _______________ MM/DD/YYYY (Date should be between March 2020 and April 2021)

Reason for loss of work: ________________________________________________________________

EMPLOYERS ARE REQUIRED TO SUBMIT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

A. The employer’s mailing address* and the address of the site(s), within New York State, at which the applicant was employed; or

*Self-employed workers should use their own mailing address.

B. The employer’s New York State Unemployment Insurance account number or Federal Employment Identification Number (FEIN); or

C. Contact information, including a phone number, for a representative of such employer who can verify the contents of the letter. (In selecting this option, a DOL representative may contact you, but only to confirm the information submitted here.)

Note to employers: This letter can be filled out and submitted by self-employed applicants. Additionally, documents submitted to the DOL as part of the EWF application, including those from employers, are not public records and will be used for the sole purpose of EWF benefits administration. Disclosure of such to any other government agencies, including U.S. Immigration Customs Enforcement (ICE), is strictly prohibited by law for any purpose other than processing the application, unless expressly authorized by the individual applicant or legally required to do so pursuant to a lawful court order or judicial warrant. Submitting this letter will not impact an employer’s unemployment insurance experience rating or contribution rate.

For more information on the Excluded Workers Fund, including eligibility requirements, visit dol.ny.gov/ewf.
