Important changes are coming soon for New Yorkers enrolled in Medicaid, Child Health Plus, and the Essential Plan.

- Since early 2020, people enrolled in these programs have had their coverage extended automatically due to federal government policies relating to COVID-19.
- However, new federal rules will require NY State to resume eligibility reviews and renewals for people enrolled in these programs. This means you may need to take action to renew your health insurance or the insurance of your family members.
- Beginning in spring 2023, renewal notices will be sent to enrollees in these programs based on their enrollment end dates. Renewal notices will include the deadline to take action to renew their insurance or risk having a gap in coverage. Deadlines will be based on their enrollment end dates and will range from June 30, 2023, through May 31, 2024.
- Sign up for text alerts from NY State of Health so you don’t miss important health insurance updates, including when it’s time to renew:
  - Text START to 1-866-988-0327 (for Spanish, text INCIAR)
  - For more information, visit info.ny whole or health.ny.gov/COVID-19-Changes

- Enrollment in NY State of Health will remain open through May 2024 so anyone who loses their Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or Essential Plan coverage during the redetermination process will be able to enroll in a Qualified Health Plan, if they qualify.

Federal Public Health Emergency ending

- In 2020, the federal government declared a public health emergency because of COVID-19. The emergency declaration will end on May 11, 2023.
- This means that there will be changes to health insurance programs, as well as COVID-19 vaccines, testing, and treatment.
  - Vaccines will generally still be covered by insurance plans.
  - Access to free testing (in-person or at-home test kits) will end for most people.
    - In NYC, free at-home test kits will continue to be distributed at over 250 walk-up locations, including all NYC libraries, while supplies last. PCR and rapid testing will continue to be available, regardless of insurance or immigration status, at NYC Health + Hospitals and at Health Department COVID express sites.
    - Treatments purchased by the federal government will remain free for patients while supplies last.
  - Coverage details will vary depending on your health insurance plan or program.
Immigration 1/3

Roxham Road is now closed to migrants hoping to enter Canada

- On March 24, 2023, the U.S. and Canada announced changes to the Safe Third Country Agreement, which determines who can seek asylum at the land border between the U.S. and Canada.
- Starting March 25, 2023, people entering Canada at Roxham Road and other irregular border crossings will no longer be able to seek asylum in Canada, unless they qualify for specific exemptions and can prove it.
- If you do not qualify, you will be sent back to the U.S., and you will never be able to make an asylum claim in Canada again. After being sent back, you may be detained in the U.S., and even deported to your home country.
- For more information (in English, Spanish, and French) and how to get advice on your situation, visit bridgesnotborders.ca.

New process for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans

- DHS has announced a new process that allows nationals of Cuba, Haiti, Nicaragua, and Venezuela, and their immediate family members, to request to come to the U.S.
- Qualified individuals who are outside the U.S. and lack entry documents can now be considered, on a case-by-case basis, for advance authorization to travel, and a temporary period of parole for up to 2 years for humanitarian reasons.
- To participate in this process, individuals must have a supporter in the U.S. who agrees to provide them with financial support. They must also pass security and background checks, and meet other eligibility criteria.
- For more information about this program, visit uscis.gov/CHNV.

Information for recent arrivals and asylum seekers

- There are many different immigration agencies within the U.S. government. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is the agency that enforces immigration laws, and the Intensive Supervision Appearance Program (ISAP) is the name for ICE’s program to monitor certain immigrants.
- Some people have to check in regularly with ICE or ISAP as part of their case. If you entered the U.S. by crossing the border and you were detained, or if you were detained some time after entering the country, you may have ICE or ISAP check-ins.
- For more information on the check-in process, visit:
  - help.asylumadvocacy.org/faqs-ice-isap (English)
  - apoyodeasilo.org/preguntas-frecuentes-ice-isap (Spanish)
- If you move, it is important to update your address with the U.S. government. That way, you will make sure to receive important documents in the mail like hearing or interview notices. You need to update your address separately with every immigration agency you interact with.
- For more information about moving and updating your address, visit:
  - asylumadvocacy.org/faqs-moving-traveling (English)
  - apoyodeasilo.org/preguntas-frecuentes-mudanza-viajes (Spanish)
- Effective May 31, 2023, USCIS changed the filing location for certain affirmative asylum applications submitted by mail. Online filing is available and encouraged for applicants who are not in immigration court proceedings and who do not have to submit their application to the Asylum Vetting Center.
Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

- On October 5, 2022, a federal appeals court in Louisiana ruled that DACA is not a lawful program as currently implemented. The appeals court sent the case back to the Texas district court for consideration of the Biden administration’s new 2022 DACA regulation, which is scheduled to take effect on October 31, 2022.
- Litigation is ongoing, so it is possible that there will be additional changes to the program.
- In the meantime, DHS will continue to accept and process renewal DACA requests (including requests for work permits and advance parole). DHS will accept but not process initial DACA requests.
  - If you currently have DACA, your status is still valid.
  - If your DACA expires soon, renew now!
  - If you submitted a first-time initial DACA application to USCIS that has not yet been granted, that application will be frozen. It will not be processed until further notice.
- Individuals who previously received Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) can now file Forms I-821D (DACA renewal application) and I-765 (work permit renewal application) online.
  - This ability is for those who currently have DACA or whose DACA expired less than a year ago.
  - More information about how to renew DACA online: uscis.gov/humanitarian/renew-your-daca

Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and Deferred Enforced Departure (DED)

- The U.S. government may designate a foreign country for TPS if certain conditions, such as armed conflict or natural disasters, prevent nationals of that country from returning safely.
- During a designated period, individuals who apply for and are granted TPS:
  - Are protected from deportation
  - Can obtain a work permit and social security number
  - May be granted travel authorization
  - Cannot be detained by DHS because of their immigration status
- TPS is a temporary benefit that does not lead to permanent status. However, TPS holders may apply for any other immigration benefit or nonimmigrant status that they are eligible for.
- Countries currently designated for TPS:
  - Afghanistan, Burma (Myanmar), Cameroon, El Salvador, Ethiopia, Haiti, Honduras, Nepal, Nicaragua, Somalia, Sudan, South Sudan, Syria, Ukraine, Venezuela, Yemen
- For specific country information, eligibility requirements, registration periods, and latest updates, check uscis.gov/TPS.
- All TPS applicants can now file Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, online at uscis.gov/i-821.
- Certain TPS beneficiaries and applicants who electronically filed Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, did not receive a receipt notice that includes language about the 540-day automatic Employment Authorization Document (EAD) extension. Starting March 2023, these individuals can sign into their USCIS online account to get a corrected, printable receipt notice, and they will also receive one by mail. For more information, visit uscis.gov/eadautoextend.
- On January 26, 2023, President Biden announced the extension of DED for eligible Hong Kong residents through February 5, 2025. Eligible Hong Kong residents include those who arrived in the U.S. on or before January 26, 2023, as well as those who were covered under the initial period of DED.
Uniting for Ukraine provides a pathway for Ukrainian citizens and their immediate family members who are outside the U.S. to come to the U.S. and stay temporarily in a two-year period of parole. This means that they do not need to wait for USCIS to approve their Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, before they can work in the U.S.

On June 8, 2023, USCIS expanded employment authorization to cover additional Afghan and Ukrainian parolees.

Qualified parolees will only need to show Form I-94 to their employer to verify their employment eligibility. After 90 days, they will need to show their employer an EAD (work permit), but the Form I-765 filing fee will be waived.

For more details, visit uscis.gov/newsroom/alerts/certain-afghan-parolees-are-employment-authorized-incident-to-parole

Employment authorization for Afghan and Ukrainian parolees

- Starting November 21, 2022, certain Ukrainian and Afghan parolees, and their qualifying family members, will be authorized to work upon arrival. This means that they do not need to wait for USCIS to approve their Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, before they can work in the U.S.

- On June 8, 2023, USCIS expanded employment authorization to cover additional Afghan and Ukrainian parolees.

- Qualified parolees will only need to show Form I-94 to their employer to verify their employment eligibility. After 90 days, they will need to show their employer an EAD (work permit), but the Form I-765 filing fee will be waived.

Resources for Afghan refugees and parolees

- On June 8, 2023, DHS announced a new process that will enable Afghan nationals to renew their parole and continue to live and work in the U.S.
  - Afghan nationals who are currently parolees may now apply for a renewal of their parole and employment authorization through a new no-fee application process, available online and on paper, that uses Form I-131, Application for Travel Document.
  - DHS will also consider a two-year extension of parole for Afghan parolees who apply for asylum or adjustment of status to a lawful permanent resident. If an extension is approved, the applicant’s original employment authorization will be extended and sent to their last address of record with USCIS.
  - Afghan nationals are encouraged to pursue a permanent status in the U.S. that they may be eligible for, including through the Special Immigrant and asylum processes.

- For more information, visit uscis.gov/humanitarian/information-for-afghan-nationals/re-parole-process-for-certain-afghans

Uniting for Ukraine

- Uniting for Ukraine provides a pathway for Ukrainian citizens and their immediate family members who are outside the U.S. to come to the U.S. and stay temporarily in a two-year period of parole.

- For more information on the program and application process, see the DHS webpage: dhs.gov/ukraine.

- Ukrainians who were paroled into the U.S. before the Uniting for Ukraine program was created generally received one year of parole. DHS is currently reviewing each of those cases for a one-year extension.
  - If extensions are granted, updated I-94s will be available at i94.cbp.dhs.gov. Work authorizations will also be extended, and USCIS will send a Form I-797C by mail.
Education

Promise NYC child care assistance
- In January 2023, New York City launched Promise NYC, a new program that will provide child care subsidies for low-income families with undocumented or non-citizen children, who were previously ineligible because of their immigration status.
- The program will support at least 600 children from January to June 2023.
  - Families may be eligible if they:
    - Are not eligible for other forms of child care subsidies
    - Have a child ages 0-13
    - Have a household income below 300% of the federal poverty level
- Families are encouraged to apply as soon as possible with the following designated community organizations in their borough:
  - Bronx and Manhattan: Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation (212-822-8300, nmic.org/promisenyc)
  - Brooklyn: Center for Family Life (718-438-9500, centerforfamilylife.org)
  - Staten Island: La Colmena (718-442-7700, lacolmenanyc.org)
  - Queens: Chinese-American Planning Council (718-358-8899, cpc-nyc.org)

Child Care Assistance Program
- The New York State budget this year included an expansion of child care assistance to those making 85% of the state median income. An estimated 100,000 additional families will now be eligible to participate in the Child Care Assistance Program.
- Changes to the program include the following:
  - Families making up to 85% of the state median income will now be eligible.
    - $63,416 for a family of 2
    - $78,337 for a family of 3
    - $93,259 for a family of 4
    - $108,180 for a family of 5
    - $123,101 for a family of 6
  - Costs will be limited to 1% of the total family income above the poverty line for participating families.
  - The number of allowable annual absences will increase from 24 to 80.
- For more information and to see if you may be able to get child care at low or no cost, visit ocfs.ny.gov/ccap.

College Financial Aid and NYS DREAM Act
- Need money for college? Your first step is to fill out the federal government’s Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Now is the time to get started: some federal and state money is first-come, first-served. Apply at studentaid.gov/FAFSA.
- Get help at UnderstandingFAFSA.org, a website that provides guides and resources for students and families seeking money for college.
  - Their free FAFSA How-To Guide for High School Students is available in ten languages.
  - The website has updated how-to pages for undocumented students and immigrant families.
- The Senator José Peralta New York State DREAM Act gives undocumented and other students access to NYS-administered grants and scholarships that support their higher education costs.

“The People’s Money” – NYC citywide participatory budgeting
- “The People’s Money” is New York City’s first citywide participatory budgeting (PB) process.
- All NYC residents age 11 and up, regardless of immigration status, can decide how to spend $5 million of the city’s budget to address local community needs.
- Residents can vote for their favorite projects online, in-person, or by phone, from May 10 through June 25, 2023.
- For more information, visit participate.nyc.gov.
New minimum pay rate for NYC food delivery workers

- New York City will become the first major U.S. city to set a minimum pay rate for food delivery workers.
- Starting July 12, 2023, NYC’s app-based food delivery workers must be paid at least $17.96 an hour, not including tips.
- Companies (such as DoorDash, Grubhub, and Uber) must either pay workers a flat hourly rate, or per delivery.
  - The hourly rate must account for all the time a worker is connected to the platform, including time spent waiting for trip offers and trip time.
  - Per delivery pay must be at least approximately 50 cents per minute of trip time, from when a worker accepts a delivery offer to the time it is delivered, not including tips.
- The hourly rate will increase to at least $19.96 before tips by April 1, 2025.

Workforce Retention Grant Program for child care workers

- On May 31, 2023, Governor Hochul announced a $500 million investment to bolster New York’s child care workforce through the Workforce Retention Grant Program
- Funding from the program will support 150,000 child care workers and can be used to provide bonus payments ranging from $2,300 to $3,000 to staff in caregiving roles, as well as to recruit new staff, offer sign-on and referral bonuses, and more.
- Applications will open on July 13.

COVID-19 Capital Costs Tax Credit Program

- The $250 million COVID-19 Capital Costs Tax Credit Program provides financial assistance to NYS small businesses that were burdened with pandemic-related operational costs, from structural changes and building upgrades to health-related supplies and materials.
- The program is open to small businesses operating in NYS with 100 employees or less and gross receipts of less than $2.5 million. The business must have incurred at least $2,000 of qualifying expenses between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2022.
- Small businesses can receive a tax credit of 50% of qualifying expenses up to a maximum of $25,000 in tax credits based on qualifying expenses of $50,000.
- For more information and to apply, visit esd.ny.gov/covid-19-capital-costs-tax-credit
Filing your taxes in 2023

- The deadline to file your tax return this year was April 18, 2023.
  - If you have not filed your tax return for this year or previous years, you should do so as soon as possible.
  - If you owe taxes, you may owe a penalty for filing late and interest charges on the taxes not paid by the original due date.
  - If you do not owe taxes or you expect a refund, you may not owe a penalty. Still, it may be best to file as soon as you can to receive your refund or to ensure you don’t owe a balance.
  - For more information, visit irs.gov/taxtopics/tc153

- Need help filing your taxes?
  - You can get free tax preparation assistance by IRS-certified volunteers from the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA), Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE), and Tax-Aide programs.
    - These services are available if your income is $60,000 or less, you are 60 years old or older, or you have a disability or speak limited English.
    - For more information and to find a location near you, visit irs.gov/VITA.
  - You can get connected to IRS-certified volunteers virtually to have your return prepared through GetYourRefund.org
    - This service is free if your income is $66,000 or less, and is a good option if you are comfortable using technology.
  - You can prepare and file your own return through IRS Free File at irs.gov/freefile
    - If your income is $73,000 or less, you can access guided return preparation assistance.

- Filing taxes with an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)
  - ITINs are available to people who are required to have a U.S. taxpayer identification number but who do not have, and are not eligible for, a Social Security number (SSN). Having an ITIN allows you to file taxes and claim tax credits that you are eligible for.
  - To learn more about how to apply, which tax credits you could be eligible for, and other benefits to getting an ITIN, visit taxoutreach.org/tax-filing/itin

- Watch out for scams! The IRS will never text, email, or contact you on social media asking for your personal or financial information.
  - Learn about recent tax scams and how to recognize and report one at irs.gov/alerts
Know Your Rights

Community members and allies should be aware of their rights whenever dealing with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Border Patrol, or other law enforcement.

If you are stopped by immigration or other law enforcement, remember:
- Stay calm. Do not run. Do not resist or obstruct the officer.
- Do not lie or provide false documents.
- You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say can be used against you.
- If an agent asks if they can search you or your belongings, you have the right to say no. However, you may not physically resist.
- Police may pat down your clothing if they suspect a weapon.
- If you are not a US citizen and an immigration agent requests your immigration papers, you must show them if you have them with you.
- You or someone else in the community can take video or audio recordings of interactions with law enforcement. You can also write down what happened after they leave.
- It is illegal for law enforcement officers to perform any stops, searches, detentions, or deportations based on your race, national origin, religion, sex, or ethnicity.

Private Spaces
- Your home and other “private spaces” (such as employee-only areas of a workplace) carry special protections that public spaces do not. Officers can only enter private spaces if they have your consent or they show you a judicial warrant (signed by a judge).

Protected Areas
- On October 27, 2021, the Department of Homeland Security issued a new policy that restricts ICE and CBP enforcement actions in or near “protected areas.”
- Examples of protected areas include, but are not limited to: schools and other educational institutions or events, healthcare facilities, places of worship, places where children gather, social services locations, disaster or emergency response centers, ceremonies such as weddings and funerals, and public demonstrations such as parades and rallies.
- In New York State, federal immigration agents cannot arrest people at, or going to or leaving from, state, city, and municipal courthouses, without a judicial warrant.

Be aware of immigration fraud
- Immigration law is complicated. Be careful when discussing your situation with any person or business.
- You should only speak to a lawyer or Department of Justice (DOJ) accredited representative for legal advice on your situation.
- Never get immigration help from a “notario,” travel agent, tax preparer, forms preparer, or notary. In the US, a “notario” is NOT a lawyer!

You can report interactions with federal agents to the Immigrant Defense Project (IDP).

IDP also provides legal information and referrals to immigrants who have been arrested, ticketed, or convicted of a crime. Call 212-725-6422 or email info@immdefense.org.

If you need help with your case or have general immigration questions, call the Office for New Americans hotline at 1-800-566-7636.
Hate Crimes

In recent months, there have been increased reports of hate crimes against members of the immigrant community.

What is a hate crime?
- A hate crime is an offense that is motivated by bias.
- A person commits a hate crime when one of a specified set of crimes is committed targeting a victim because of a perception or belief about their race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, or when such an act is committed as a result of that type of perception or belief.
- Governor Cuomo created the Hate Crimes Task Force to fight the increase in reports of bias motivated threats, harassment and violence throughout New York State.
- When hate crimes are reported, all information regarding your experience, identity, and others remains confidential.

If you see something or are a victim of a hate crime, report it to the police and call the NYS Division of Human Rights. Call 1-888-392-3644 or Text “HATE” to 81336.

If you or someone you know has been a victim of a crime, the NYS Office of Victim Services may be able to help with medical bills and counseling expenses, burial and funeral costs, lost wages, and other types of assistance. Call 1-800-247-8035 or visit ovs.ny.gov.
